SEE REVERSE SIDE FOR PARTICIPATION OPPORTUNITIES

Below is a list of interest groups, leadership opportunities & fundraisers in which you can become involved. Check all that you are interested in and we will forward your inquiry to the current committee chair or group leader.

Interest Groups

- Gardening Interest Group: share your interest and learn from those with a greener thumb. Visit local nurseries and gardens. Participants trade books, knowledge and “starts.”
- Evening Book Group: Meets at 7:30 p.m. on the third Thursday of each month in members’ homes. Members sign up to lead the discussion, share reviews and provide wine. This group has been meeting consistently since 1984.
- Lunch Bunch Book Group: Meets 12:30-1:30 on the second Thursday of the month at the Merriam Street Apartments at Odd Fellows.
- Dining Group: Group members gather once a month on a rotating basis October through May. Themed dinners are prepared by all with the hostess planning the main course. Singles, spouses/ partners are welcome. A great opportunity to share new recipes and meet new people.
- Knitting Interest Group: Not a knitting class, just a reason to get together and knit, share patterns, projects, etc.
- Pinochle Group: Pinochle is a classic two-player game developed in the United States, and it is still one of the country’s most popular games. This group is fun, fast, and oh, did we say fun.
- Walking/Hiking Group: Enjoy the outdoors and the company of others as you trek through the countryside of Walla Walla County.
- Afternoon Bridge Group: Meets 1st and 3rd Wednesdays.

Advocacy and Outreach Opportunities & Committees

- Scholarships: organizes process and reviews scholarship applications for local women returning to college and for women in college interested in attending NCCWSL, recognize high school juniors/ seniors interested in STEM fields.
- Memberships: organizes annual membership receptions and processes new member applications.
- Programs: plans and organizes mission based events, speakers and activities for branch members and their guests.
